Whether you're a thrill seeker, nature lover or culture buff, Singapore has many exciting leisure options. As always, access by MRT. The MRT stations indicated are the nearest stations to these attractions and you might have to take a connecting bus to get to reach your destination.

ArtScience Museum

This striking lotus-inspired landmark icon houses the ArtScience Museum. Designed by Moshe Safdie, it features 21 gallery spaces spanning nearly 5000m². Opened in February 2011, the ArtScience Museum has held several large-scale exhibitions by some of the world's best known artists including Leonardo da Vinci, Salvador Dali, Andy Warhol, Vincent Van Gogh and M.C. Escher.

As the name implies, the ArtScience Museum presents significant exhibitions and events pertaining to the arts and science and does this in partnership with renowned museums and galleries from around the world including the British Museum and Science Museum in London; the American Museum of Natural History, New York; the Biblioteca Ambrosiana, Milan; the Mori Art Museum, Tokyo; the Australian Centre for Moving Image, Melbourne and many other institutions.

Operating Hours:
10 am to 7 pm including public holidays.
(Last admission is at 6 pm. Please check with your hotel concierge for any closures.)
